

Training

With over 15 years' experience working across the UK, Ireland and the Channel Islands ASAP offer comprehensive Health and Safety services delivering within budget, on time every time.

We have a client centred approach to compliance. Not only are our training solutions bespoke, we are committed to the belief that learning should be fun, enjoyable and effective.

We offer a full spectrum of compliance and health and safety related training which can be site based or arranged at a convenient venue out of the office or in our own training facility. We offer training for groups or individuals, from site based operational staff to executive level, always integrating existing company policy and procedures.

With a range of E-learning modules we offer cost effective training particularly for clients with larger numbers of employees. The web safe system can deliver a powerful easy to use reporting engine to check on learner progress.

We support business by supplying the following services:

- ✓ Health and Safety Training
- ✓ Fire Safety Training
- ✓ Asbestos Training
- ✓ First Aid Training
- ✓ Environmental Training
- ✓ E- Learning modules in over 25 health and safety related topics
